for
Master Robut Marshall Collins as soon as you wrote me of his arrival I went to work to make him a cap. before my hand became stiff I used to do pretty work, but I have done the best I could in making this little cap now. Hope it will please his mama I am gaining my strength now, and I hope I will be as well as I usually am, old people never feel good like young ones, and I ain't old. I don't think I will ever live to be as

Collins
old as grandmother was.
None of us have ever reached that age. I know Cousin Lou Black is dead, but what become of Lou's little girl? She was just a year old when I visited you all. I received the check all right and thanks you so many times for it.

My best regards each and all of you.

Sincerely

Mary Lou Sharman
